Sixers and seconders day

Bases:

Chris Faulkner and Margaret Hopkin are running bases from the Bridgend District. Those running a base will need to take tables due to a lack of tables on site. A risk assessment must be carried out for each base. Any expenses must be proved by a receipt for refunds to be provided.

District did say would not be able to provide a bus

Those Groups attending within the Bridgend District Are as Follows:

Group	Numbers Attending
1 st Cornelly	10
3 rd Bridgend (Cefn Glas)	10
1 st Nottage	-
3 rd Maesteg	4
1 st Kenfig Hill	2
1 st Pencoed	4
1 st Bridgend	6
	Total : 36

The cost for the event will be £3 per child, and all groups must have a home contact.

Children will need to bring all items on handout and are reminded that no mobile phones are allowed for any children. Tea and Coffee will be provided for all adults. Bases will be both indoors and out with a 10.30. All children need to arrive by 10.15 as all children will be taking part in all bases (see sheet for more detail and information

Sion asked would parking at the site and arrival been an issue. The site is a difficult one to find and a sat nav would be useless. Mini buses would be able to park in the cricket club or on site. A map would not be provided as the AA would provide a much better idea for direction.

Badge Day

One suggestion was from RCT district was a day for leaders to run a silver award training day. The acting area commissioner felt that this was inappropriate as it is all explained. Another suggestion was for the astronomer's badge

Cub Scout Conference

No information, the meeting last week was cancelled. Hopefully more information will be given in 2October.

Presentation (possibly)

Chief Scouts Silver award presentation 2nd march, can all names be handed by 14th January at the very latest. Chris will know when everything will be confirmed

IQ Uniform Shop

The IQ uniform shop will order any scout publications and even neckerchiefs if needed as well as uniform. If you need a neckerchief take a new one to get the best match. Kay commented that the uniform must be told to the owner so not to get confused between t-shirts and jumpers.

District Events

3rd October- District Chess and draughts at 3rd Bridgend scout hut at 1.30pm. Leaders can enter as many teams as you want and you will need to bring chess and draughts sets. One day activity forms must be filled in.

Training weekend is on the same weekend which will be held at Miskin Mill. See Chris for more information or your TA.

21st November- Mrs. Whites trophy- the event will be held at 3rd Bridgend and Children need to be in FULL uniform. Each group can enter 8 cubs and a sixer and seconder or at least 2 sixers must be in the group.

6th December in Porthcawl. It will be held at 2pm and will be confirmed. Parc avenue- Gilgan.

18th October- A full district leaders meeting will be held at the Bridgend United church at 2.30pm. Every leaders needs to bring membership card and first aid certificate. This is so district records can be updated. Andrey soulsbry will be there to sort out any training. Leaders will be able to Park over by the Embassy. Suggest you walk around than risk your life.

Some groups are not using form NAN and Leaders may not be using appropriate home contacts. Please see the home contact sheet online. Here is the information from POR.

- a. For all activities which take Members away from their home area a Home Contact (or contacts) must be appointed for each party.
- b. The Home Contact(s) must:
 - be contactable day and night;
 - not be related to or emotionally involved with any member of the party;
 - be in possession of the names and addresses of the next of kin of each member of the party and how to contact them;
 - know how to contact the party and home Scout authorities;
 - Be aware of the outline plans for the activity.
